

CALL FOR APPLICATIONS / 2017 Cole Fellowship

The Thomas Cole National Historic Site (TCNHS) is now reviewing applications for fellows to participate in the research and interpretation of the work, home, and studios of the artist, Thomas Cole (1801 – 1848). Four candidates will be selected to join the Thomas Cole Fellows program from May 31- December 15, 2017.

The Thomas Cole National Historic Site (TCNHS) preserves and interprets the home and studios of Thomas Cole, the founder of the Hudson River School of painting, the nation's first art movement. Cole's profound influence on America's cultural landscape inspires us to engage broad audiences through programs that are relevant today.

Through a combination of research, interpretation, and hands-on projects, Cole Fellows are afforded an opportunity to conduct significant research and to gain professional museum experience. Selected candidates are provided the opportunity to:

- Conduct in-depth research that leads to a major project and /or paper based on her/his work over the season.
- Attend an intensive one-week seminar with the leading Cole scholar and Professor, Dr. Allan Wallach.
- Lead tours of the historic site and have full engagement in interpretive programming.
- Work closely with the Director of Exhibitions and Collections, and other TCNHS staff on projects that may include collection care and research, exhibition planning, educational programming, and special events.
- Participate staff meetings and learn about the structural, strategic, and creative decisions involved in the day-to-day operations of a historic artists' house museum.
- Make group field visits to area museums and sites, meet museum professionals, participate in presentations and assigned readings, and benefit from professional development opportunities including resume review and next step planning based on individual career goals.

Additional Compensation: Free shared housing on-site in a fully furnished house with private bedrooms including electric, water, heat, internet, and garbage removal is provided along with a monthly stipend of $400.

Qualifications: TCNHS seeks self-motivated recent graduates, graduating college seniors, and graduate students who have expressed a commitment to pursue careers in history, art, material culture, decorative arts, collection and exhibition management, research, museum studies, and/or education. Applicants should be flexible, organized, energetic, have a passion for art and ideas, and an affinity for working with the public. A car is helpful, but not required. Participation for the entire program from May 31- December 15, 2017 is required. Work week is Wednesday-Sunday.

APPLICATIONS will be accepted now through FEBRUARY 15, 2017, with priority consideration given to those who apply before JANUARY 26, 2017.

Applications must include:

- Cover letter describing your interest in the Fellowship and your career goals
- Resume
- References – include names and full contact information for 3 people (professors, teachers, and/or employers)
- Writing sample (2 to 5 pages MAX please)
