

2022 SUMMER PARTY

THOMAS COLE NATIONAL HISTORIC SITE

The 2022 Summer Party will celebrate our exhibition, Thomas Cole's Studio: Memory and Inspiration, curated by Franklin Kelly, Senior Curator and Christiane Ellis Valone Curator of American Paintings at the National Gallery of Art. The artworks that Thomas Cole left behind in his studio when he died suddenly at the age of 47 shaped the course of American art. The exhibition reassembles many of those significant works for the first time and explores how Cole's example so powerfully affected the evolution of art in America.

Your support is critical for this organization and the community it serves. As an independent non-profit, the Thomas Cole National Historic Site is responsible for raising its entire operating budget each fiscal year. Thank you for making all of our achievements possible.

The exhibition is supported in part by an award from the National Endowment for the Arts. Major support is provided by the Barrie A. and Deedee Wigmore Foundation. Additional support is provided by Candace and Rick Beinecke, and Richard T. Sharp.

The exhibition and publication are also supported by additional generous sponsors listed at thomascole.org/inspiration
