THOMAS COLE NATIONAL HISTORIC SITE

Your support is critical to this national treasure and the community it serves. Your event sponsorship and tickets comprise a large part of our annual operating budget, allowing us to offer experiences that spark a love of art and nature through the work of Thomas Cole. Thank you for your critical support that makes all our achievements possible.

This year, we are celebrating the anniversary of America here at the home of American landscape painting. Our initiative, “Thomas Cole: Painting the Nature of America,” will unveil a series of historic and contemporary exhibitions, all of which you can see during the party.
